Pipe-Cleaner Human

Pipe cleaners can be used to create figures to "wear" the structured clothing objects the students design and make. Here are several examples; the different components of each are executed in different colors so you can see how to re-create the figure: